Flow

Flow, named for its sweeping curves: an ergonomic, shapely form designed to please everyone who tries it. It's not just another chair: it's a piece you can use for its practicality as well as to show your sense of design and style.

Flow complements our existing offerings in visitor and breakout seating, and for any other areas where stackable is best. The Workspace Flow chair offers a roomier and more comfortable seating experience than most. Supported by Workspace Commercial Furniture's commitment to Australian manufacturing. Flow is available in a wide range of fabrics leather or vinyl. Complimented in chrome, powder coat, timber legs or 4-star base with castors, Flow is the ideal chair solution.
